When did you know you wanted to be a Chef? And/Or How did you become a Chef?

I'm in my 20's and love to cook. I don't really consider myself a chef. However, I do love to create and prepare gourmet dishes, and watch how my family and friends enjoy them.

Please share any helpful/interesting tricks or techniques you use in your kitchen?

I basically take what I have on hand, and use those ingredients to create a delicious, home-cooked meal.

What's your favorite dish to make at home?

I love to create seafood dishes, since I live in Newport, and have access to wonderful, fresh seafood.

Any additional interesting things about yourself you would like to share?

I have worked on chartered fishing boats as a deckhand, and have worked on commercial fishing vessels in Oregon and Alaska, so I know good seafood. Now I co-own Pacific Breeze Seafoods with my partners, and life is good.

What's your secret ingredient? ☺

I don't have a secret ingredient. I just love creating dishes from scratch. Cooking good food for myself, my family and friends, just makes me happy.
